PRESS RELEASE

Actuarial Association of Europe: New Name, New Commitment

Brussels, 1 January, 2014: The Groupe Consultatif Actuariel Européen, or European Actuarial Consultative Group, is today changing its name to the Actuarial Association of Europe (“AAE”).

The Actuarial Association of Europe has a wealth of experience in advising the main European institutions on actuarial matters.

The new logo maintains our well-recognised identity and emphasises our main working area: the European Union. It is built around the globe to illustrate the AAE’s link to the international actuarial community.

At the same time we are proud to introduce our new website – www.actuary.eu.

Malcolm Campbell, chairperson of the AAE, stated: “Our new name connects more positively to what we are and where our roots are. The AAE represents 20,000 highly skilled European actuaries and is an objective, professional, leading adviser, contributor and spokesperson to European institutions, independent of industry interests”.
